

Author Guidelines

At the International Journal of Cross Disciplinary Research and Innovation (IJCDRI), we are dedicated to providing authors with a seamless and transparent submission process. To support this, please review the following instructions carefully before submitting your manuscript.

File Formats and Document Requirements

- Accepted File Formats: Submissions should be in Word (.doc or .docx) format. All text must be in Times New Roman, 11-point font, with 1.15 line spacing.
- File Size Limit: Ensure your manuscript file does not exceed 20 MB, as larger files may delay the review process.

Citation Style and References

- Citation Style: IJCDRI follows the APA (American Psychological Association) citation style. Please make sure all references are cited accurately within the text and fully listed in the reference section.
- Completeness and Accuracy: Double-check all references for completeness and accuracy to uphold high standards of research integrity.

Word Limit and Structure

- Research Articles: Maximum of 6,000 words (excluding references and appendices).
- Review Articles: Maximum of 4,000 words.
- Short Communications: Maximum of 1,500 words.

Each article should follow this structure:

- Abstract: 200-250 words summarizing the research.
- Main Sections: Introduction, Methodology, Results, Discussion, and Conclusion.
- References: Complete and formatted according to APA style.
- Additional Materials: Appendices and supplementary data, if necessary.

Peer-Review Process

- Double-Blind Review: All manuscripts go through a rigorous double-blind peer-review process, evaluated by at least two independent reviewers for impartiality and thoroughness.
- Feedback Timeline: Authors can expect initial feedback within 2-3 weeks. Revisions are encouraged to improve the manuscript's clarity and impact.

Kindly Follow the Table below for reference and font structure
